ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD, Etc.

 Biographies of the Knights and Companions of the undermentioned Orders are given in previous sections.

THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

The Order of the Garter, constituted by King Edward III., about 1348, has, since June 28th, 1831, consisted of the Sovereign and twenty-five Knight Companions, such lineal descendants of King George I., as may have been elected, and of Sovereigns and extra Knights who have been admitted by special statutes. The Prince of Wales is a constituent part of the original institution. The Habit and Ensigns of the Order are (i) A Garter of dark blue velvet, edged with gold, bearing the motto, Honi soit qui mal y pense, in golden letters, with buckle and pendant of gold, richly chased. [It is worn on the left leg, below the knee.] (ii) A Mantle of blue velvet lined with taffeta, with the star of the Order embroidered on the left breast. (iii) A Hood of crimson velvet. (iv) A Surcoat of crimson velvet, lined with white taffeta. (v) A Hat of black velvet, lined with white taffeta, and fastened thereto by a band of diamonds, a plume of white ostrich feathers, in the centre of which a tuft of black heron's feathers. (vi) A Collar of gold (weighing thirty ounces, troy) consisting of twenty-six garters enamelled azure, each enclosing a rose gules, and between each garter a knot enamelled white, and pendant thereto. (vii) The George, an enamelled figure of St. George on horseback, encountering the dragon. (viii) The Lesser George is worn pendant on a broad dark blue ribbon over the left shoulder. (ix) The Star of eight points of silver, upon the centre of which the cross of St. George gules, encircled with the garter. [It may be enriched with jewels at the pleasure of the possessor.]

Insignia of the Order of the Garter.

Garter Principal King of Arms—Sir Albert William Woods, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., F.S.A.

THE MOST ANCIENT AND MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE THISTLE.

Insignia of the Order of the Thistle.

The Order of the Thistle, said to have been founded by King Achaius, was revived by King James II. in 1687, and re-established by Queen Anne, Dec. 31st, 1703. It consists of the Sovereign and sixteen Knights. The insignia are (i) the STAR, consisting of a St. Andrew's cross of silver embroidery, with rays emanating between the points of the cross; in the centre upon a field of gold, a thistle of green, heightened with gold, and surrounded by a circle of green, having thereon the motto, Nemo me impune lacessit. [It is worn on the left side of the coat or cloak.] (ii) The COLLAR of gold consists of thistles intermingled with sprigs of rue. (iii) The BADGE (of gold enamelled) consists of an image of St. Andrew, in a green gown and purple surcoat, bearing before him the cross enamelled white, the cross and feet resting upon the ground of green, the whole surrounded by rays of gold in the form of a glory. [It is worn pendant to the collar, or to a dark green ribbon over the left shoulder and tied under the arm.] (iv) The JEWEL is an oval plate argent, charged with the same insignia as the badge, within a bordure vert, thereon inscribed in letters or, the motto of the Order, and having in base a thistle of the same. [It is worn attached to a green ribbon.]

Secretary—Sir Duncan Alexander Dundas Campbell, Bt.
Lyon King of Arms—Sir James Balfour Paul, F.S.A. (Scot).

THE MOST ILLUSTRIOUS ORDER OF ST. PATRICK.

Insignia of the Order of St. Patrick.

The Order of St. Patrick, instituted by King George III., Feb. 5th, 1783, consists of the Sovereign, the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, as Grand Master, and twenty-two Knights. The Insignia are (i) the STAR, consisting of the cross of St. Patrick gules, on a field argent, charged with a trefoil vert, surrounded by a sky blue enamelled circle, inscribed with the motto of the Order, Quis separabit, and in Roman numerals the date of creation, the whole encircled by four greater and four lesser rays of silver. [This is embroidered on the left side of the coat or cloak.] (ii) The COLLAR, of pure gold, is composed of five roses and six harps alternately, each tied together with a knot of gold, the roses being enamelled alternately, white leaves within red and red leaves within white, and in the centre an imperial crown, surmounting a harp of gold, from which is pendant (iii) the BADGE of gold, surmounted with a wreath of trefoil, within which a circle of blue enamel, containing the motto of the Order in letters of gold, and encircling the cross of St. Patrick gules, surmounted with a trefoil vert, each of its leaves charged with an Imperial Crown or, upon a field argent. [The ribbon of the Order is sky blue.]

Secretary—Gustavus Francis William Lambart, Esq.
Ulster King of Arms—Sir Arthur Edward Vicars, C.V.O., F.S.A.

THE MOST HONOURABLE ORDER OF THE BATH.

The Order of the Bath was instituted in 1399. After the time of Charles II. it fell into decay, and remained obsolete until it was revived by George I. in 1725. The provisions of the Order were enlarged in 1815 and further extended in 1845. It now consists of three classes: (i) KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS (fifty military and twenty-five civil), exclusive of the Sovereign, Princes of the Blood Royal, and distinguished foreigners who may be nominated to the honorary distinction. These Knights are entitled to receive a grant of supporters to their armorial bearings and to wear the collar, badge, and star. (ii) KNIGHTS COMMANDERS (123 military and eighty civil), exclusive of foreign officers who may be admitted as Honorary Knights Commanders. Each Commander is entitled to the distinctive appellation of knighthood after he has been invested with the insignia, and to wear the badge pendant by a red ribbon round the neck, and the star embroidered on the left side. (iii) COMPANIONS (690 military and 250 civil, exclusive of any "additional Members" which may be appointed), wear the badge pendant by a narrow red ribbon on the left breast.

Insignia of the Order of the Bath.

The Insignia are (i) the COLLAR of gold (weighing thirty ounces, troy), composed of nine imperial crowns and eight devices, each consisting of a rose, a thistle, and a shamrock, issuing from a sceptre, all enamelled in their proper colours; the crowns and devices being linked together with seventeen gold knots enamelled white, and having pendant therefrom the badge of the Order. (ii) The MILITARY KNIGHT GRAND CROSS STAR is formed of rays or flames of silver, thereon a gold Maltese cross, and in the centre, within the motto, branches of laurel, issuant as in the badge. (iii) CIVIL KNIGHT GRAND CROSS STAR is of silver, formed with eight points or rays, charged with three Imperial Crowns proper upon a glory of silver rays, surrounded with a red circle upon which is the motto of the Order. (iv) MILITARY KNIGHT COMMANDER'S STAR is in the form of a cross patée of silver, having the same centre as the Knight's Grand Cross, but without a gold Maltese cross thereon.

Star of Knight Grand Cross (Civil).

(v) CIVIL KNIGHT COMMANDER'S STAR is of the same form and size, but without a laurel wreath round the circle, and containing the motto and the escroll, with the words Ich dien underneath. (vi) MILITARY BADGE is a gold Maltese cross of eight points, enamelled argent; in the four angles a lion passant guardant or; in the centre a rose, shamrock, and thistle, issuant from a sceptre between three Imperial Crowns or, within a circle gules, thereon the motto of the order, Tria juncta in uno, surrounded by two branches of laurel proper, issuing from an escroll azure inscribed Ich dien in letters of gold. [It is worn by Knights Grand Cross pendant from a red ribbon across the right shoulder, by Knights Commanders from the neck, and by Companions from the button-hole.] (vii) CIVIL BADGE is of gold and comprises a rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre between three Imperial Crowns, encircled by the motto. [Civil Knight Commanders wear the same badge of a smaller size round the neck by a red ribbon, and Civil Companions wear from the button-hole a still smaller-size pendant by a red ribbon.]

Star of Knight Commander (Military).

Secretary—Sir Albert William Woods, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., F.S.A.
Bath King-at-Arms—Maj.-Gen. Sir John Carstairs McNeill, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., V.C.

THE ORDER OF MERIT.

The badge of the Order consists of a cross of red and blue enamel of eight points, having the words "For Merit" (the motto of the Order) in gold letters within a laurel wreath on a blue enamel centre. The reverse of the badge shows the Royal and Imperial cipher in gold (two silver swords with gold hilts, placed saltirewise between the angles of the cross, being added in the case of members chosen for military or naval distinction) also within a laurel wreath, on a blue enamel centre; and the whole is surmounted by the Imperial Crown enamelled in colour, and suspended by a parti-coloured ribbon of Garter blue and crimson, two inches broad. The Sovereign's insignia, except, of course, for the modifications necessary to distinguish the Royal dignity of the wearer, is similar to the insignia worn by the ordinary members of the Order. The ceremony of investiture is from time to time conducted by the Sovereign as in the case of any other Order, the members designate being introduced by the officer of the Order in attendance. Members of the Order are entitled to attach a facsimile of its badge and ribbon to their arms, and add the letters O.M. after their names and after those of the Bath. The Seal of the Order is a facsimile of the badge, impaled with the Royal Arms, on a white ground, with the legend, "The Seal of the Order of Merit." June 26th is the anniversary of the Order. The Secretary and Registrar, who wears, as his badge of office, a decoration similar to that worn by the members of the Order, with the addition of two silver pens placed saltirewise between the angles of the cross, takes charge of the Seal of the Order, keeps a record of its members, conducts all correspondence connected with it, and makes an entry of all its proceedings in the register of the Order, the Chancery of which is in the office of the Lord Chamberlain of the Household.

Order of Merit.

Secretary and Registrar—The Comptroller of the Lord Chamberlain's Department.

THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

The Order of the Star of India was instituted by Queen Victoria in 1861, and enlarged 1866 and 1876. It consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master (the Viceroy of India), thirty Knights Grand Commanders, seventy-two Knights Commanders, and 144 Companions, exclusive of extra and honorary members.

Star.

Collar and Insignia of the Exalted Order of the Star of India.

The Insignia are (i) the COLLAR of gold, composed of the lotus of India, of palm branches tied together in saltire, of the united red and white rose, and in the centre an Imperial Crown; all enamelled in their proper colours. (ii) The STAR is composed of rays of gold issuing from a centre, having thereon a star in diamonds resting upon a light blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends and inscribed with the motto of the Order, Heaven's Light our Guide, also in diamonds. (iii) The BADGE, an onyx cameo of Her Majesty's effigy, set in a perforated and ornamented oval, containing the motto of the Order surmounted by a star, all in diamonds. (iv) The MANTLE of light blue satin lined with white, and fastened with a cordon of white silk with blue silver tassels. On the left side a representation of the star of the Order.

The Ribbon of the Order is sky-blue, having a narrow white stripe towards either edge, and is worn from the right shoulder to the left side. A Knight Commander wears (a) around his neck a ribbon two inches in width, of the same colours and pattern as a Knight Grand Commander, and pendant therefrom a badge of a smaller size, (b) on his left breast a star composed of rays of silver issuing from a gold centre, having thereon a silver star resting upon a blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order. A Companion wears from his left breast a badge of the same form as appointed for a Knight Commander, but of a smaller size pendant to a like ribbon of the breadth of one and a half inches.

Secretary—Hugh Shakespear Barnes, Esq., C.S.I.
Registrar—Sir Albert William Woods, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., F.S.A.

THE MOST DISTINGUISHED ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

The Order of St. Michael and St. George was instituted in 1818, and enlarged and extended in 1868, 1877, and 1887. It consists of not more than sixty-five Knights Grand Cross (of whom the Grand Master is the first and principal), exclusive of Honorary Members, two hundred Knights Commanders, and three hundred and forty-two Companions. The Knights Grand Cross are entitled to bear supporters, and to encircle their arms with the collar, ribbon, and motto of the Order. The Knights Commanders encircle their arms with the ribbon and motto, and Companions suspend the badge of the Order to their arms. The Insignia are: (i) The STAR of the Knight Grand Cross, comprised of seven rays of silver, having a small ray of gold between each of them, and over all the Cross of St. George gules; in the centre is the representation of the Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, within a blue circle, inscribed with the motto, Auspicium melioris ævi. (ii) The COLLAR of gold, formed alternately of lions of England, of Maltese crosses of white enamel, and of the cyphers S. M. and S. G., having in the centre the Imperial Crown over two winged lions, passant guardant, each holding a book and seven arrows. At the opposite end of the collar are two similar lions. (iii) The BADGE is a gold cross of fourteen points of white enamel, edged with gold, having in the centre on one side the Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, and on the other St. George on horseback encountering a dragon, within a blue circle, on which is inscribed the motto of the Order. (iv) The CROSS, surmounted by the Imperial Crown, is worn by the Knights Grand Cross attached to the collar, or to a wide Saxon-blue ribbon with a scarlet stripe from the right shoulder to the left side. (v) The MANTLE is of Saxon-blue, lined with scarlet silk, tied with cordons of blue and scarlet silk and gold, and having on the left side the Star of the Order. (vi) The CHAPEAU is of blue satin, lined with scarlet and surmounted with white and black ostrich feathers. [Knights Commanders wear the badge, suspended to a narrower ribbon from the neck, and wear on their left side a star, composed of four rays, with a small cross of eight points in saltire of silver, surmounted by the Cross of St. George gules, and having the same centre as the star of the Grand Crosses. Companions wear the small Cross of the Order from a still narrower ribbon at the button-hole.]

This Order, instituted by H.M. Queen Victoria, Empress of India, Jan. 1st, 1878, and extended and enlarged in 1887, consists of the Sovereign, twenty-five Knights Grand Commanders (of whom the Grand Master is first and principal), fifty Knights Commanders, and Companions.

Eminent Order of the Indian Empire.

The Insignia are: (i) The COLLAR of gold, formed of elephants, lotus flowers, peacocks in their pride, and Indian roses, in the centre the Imperial Crown, the whole linked together with chains; (ii) The STAR of the Knight Grand Commander, comprised of five rays of silver, having a small ray of gold between each of them, the whole alternately plain and scaled, issuing from a gold centre, having thereon Her Majesty Queen Victoria's Royal Effigy, within a purple circle, edged and lettered gold, inscribed Imperatricis Auspiciis, and surmounted by an Imperial Crown, gold; (iii) The BADGE, consisting of a rose, enamelled gules, barbed vert, and having in the centre Her Majesty's Royal Effigy, within a purple circle, edged and lettered gold, inscribed Imperatricis Auspiciis, surmounted by an Imperial Crown, also gold; (iv) The MANTLE is of Imperial purple satin, lined with and fastened by a cordon of white silk, with purple silk and gold tassels attached. On the left side a representation of the Star of the Order.

The Badge.

A Knight Commander wears: (a) around his neck a ribbon two inches in width, of the same colour and pattern as a Knight Grand Commander, pendent therefrom a badge of smaller size: (b) on his left breast a star, similar to that of the first class, but the rays of which are all of silver.

A Companion wears from the left breast a badge of the same form as appointed for a Knight Commander, but of smaller size, pendent to a like ribbon of the breadth of one and a half inches.

Secretary—Hugh Shakespear Barnes, Esq., C.S.I.

Registrar—Sir Albert William Woods, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., F.S.A.

THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

Instituted by H.M. Queen Victoria, Empress of India, April 21st, 1896.

The Order consists of the Sovereign, Ordinary Members, and such Honorary Members as the Sovereign shall from time to time appoint, the Members being divided into five classes, and designated respectively: (1) Knights Grand Cross, (2) Knights Commanders, (3) Commanders, (4) Members of the Fourth Class, and (5) Members of the Fifth Class.

The persons to be admitted as Ordinary Members of this Order shall be such persons, being subjects of the British Crown, who, having rendered extraordinary, or important, or personal services to the Sovereign merit Royal favour; and the Honorary Members of the several classes consist of those Foreign Princes and persons upon whom Her Majesty may think fit to confer the honour of being received into the Order.

The Members of the several grades in the Order are to have place and precedence as follows:—the Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, and Commanders next to and immediately after the Knights Grand Commanders and Knights Commanders of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire; the Members of the Fourth Class after the Companions of the said Most Eminent Order, and the Members of the Fifth Class after the Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

The number of the Members is unlimited, and the anniversary of the Order is the Twentieth day of June every year, being the day of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria's Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

The BADGE of Knights Grand Cross consists of a white enamelled Maltese cross of eight points; on an oval centre of crimson enamel the Royal and Imperial cypher in gold, within a blue enamelled circle, thereon the motto of the Order, namely, "Victoria" in letters of gold, the circle being surmounted by an Imperial Crown enamelled in proper colours; and is worn over the right shoulder, suspended from a dark blue ribbon with a narrow edge either side of three stripes—red, white, and red—of the breadth of three inches and three-quarters, passing from the right shoulder to the left side.

The STAR of Knights Grand Cross consists of a silver chipped star of eight points; in the centre a representation of the Badge of the First Class of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a ribbon of the same colours as that of the Knights Grand Cross, of the breadth of one inch and three-quarters, and pendent therefrom the badge, which is of the same pattern as, but of smaller size than, that of a Knight Grand Cross. The star is composed of a Maltese cross in silver, with smaller rays issuing from the centre between the angles of the cross; in the centre the badge of the Order as before described, with the cross in frosted silver instead of white enamel.

The Commanders wear around their necks the like riband and badge as that appointed for the Knights Commanders, but are not entitled to wear the star.

The Members of the Fourth Class wear a badge of the same form and appearance as that appointed for the Commanders, but of smaller size, pendent from a ribbon of the same colours, of the breadth of an inch and a quarter, attached from the left breast.

The Members of the Fifth Class wear, from the left breast, the same riband and badge as that appointed for the Fourth Class, with the exception that the cross is of frosted silver instead of white enamel.

[King Edward VII. founded a decoration in Aug. 1902 styled the "Royal Victorian Chain," which is only bestowed on special occasions.]

Chancellor—The Lord Chamberlain.

Secretary—The Keeper of the Privy Purse.

Distinguished Service Order.

THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

This Order, instituted by H.M. Queen Victoria, by Royal Warrant, Sept. 6th, 1886, consists of the Sovereign, and of the Members or Companions.

The BADGE of the Order is a gold cross enamelled white, edged gold, having on one side thereof in the centre, within a wreath of laurels enamelled green, the Imperial Crown in gold upon a red enamelled ground; and on the reverse, within a similar wreath, and on a similar red ground, the Imperial and Royal Cypher. It is to be suspended from the left breast by a red riband, edged blue, of one inch in width.

Secretary and Registrar—Francis Albert Bayly, Esq., I.S.O.

THE IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.

This Order was instituted by King Edward VII. on August 8th, 1902, with a view of recognising faithful and meritorious service rendered by members of the administrative branches of the Civil Services of the various parts of the Empire. It consists of the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, and 425 Companions (250 for the Home Civil Service, and 175 for the Civil Services of the Colonies and Protectorates), recommended by the Permanent Secretary of the Treasury and the Permanent Under Secretaries of State for the Home and Foreign Departments, acting as a Committee in communication with the Heads of Departments. The BADGE of the Order is a medallion of gold and enamel, bearing on one side the Imperial and Royal Cipher, and on the reverse "for faithful service," both executed in dark blue enamel on a plaque or shield of gold surrounded by a wreath of laurel surmounted by the Imperial Crown. This decoration is worn on the left breast suspended by a ribbon of one inch in width. The Companions of the Order add the letters "I.S.O." after their names. The Secretary and Registrar of the Order is ex-officio a Companion. [Members of the Civil Service not eligible as Companions of this Order, may on retirement after 25 years of service in the United Kingdom, or 16 in a Colony or Protectorate which is recognised as unhealthy, be awarded a medal designated the Imperial Service Medal.]

Secretary and Registrar—Charles Deffell, Esq., I.S.O.

FORMAL MODES

ADDRESSING PERSONS OF TITLE.

CORRECTNESS in addressing a person of title, or one holding high office, can only be attained by first discovering what is his, or her, precise social rank, or his official position. As the name of every individual referred to in the two classes indicated appears in Debrett's Peerage, Baronetage, Knightage, and Companionage, there will be no difficulty in obtaining the requisite information. It must always be remembered that clerical, naval, and military prefixes are written before other titles, that initials indicative of distinction are written after the title or name, and that a High Officer of State or an official holding an important office, should be addressed by his official title when the communication refers to official business.

 A Widow who re-marries loses any title or precedence she gained by her previous marriage. Society, however, from pure motives of courtesy, sanctions the retention of former rank, and with one exception permits ladies who have re-married to be addressed as though their titled husbands were living. The exception is that of the widow of an Honourable, who is not permitted even by courtesy to retain after re-marriage the prefix gained through her first husband. But, officially a widow who remarries is not recognised as having any claim to bear the title of her deceased husband, e.g.:—at a coronation, or other State ceremonial, the widow of a peer would not be summoned as a peeress if she had subsequently married a commoner; and, if having espoused a peer of lesser degree than her former husband, she would only be recognised by the rank acquired by her last marriage.

Ambassador (British). — LETTERS. — Superscription, "To His Excellency [in other respects according to his rank], H. B. M.'s Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, ——." Commencement, "My Lord," or "Sir," according to rank. Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, My Lord [or Sir], Your Excellency's most humble and obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Your Excellency." [NOTE, a Minister is not addressed as "Excellency."]

Ambassador's Wife. When resident abroad at the Court to which her husband is accredited she is sometimes, out of courtesy, styled "Her Excellency," but she is not entitled to be so designated, and when in England the title is never used.

Archbishop. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "His Grace the Lord Archbishop of ——." Commencement, "My Lord Archbishop." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, my Lord Archbishop, Your Grace's most devoted and obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Your Grace."

In FORMAL DOCUMENTS the Archbishop of Canterbury is addressed as "The Most Reverend Father in God, [Archibald Frederick], by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury"; the Archbishop of York as "The Most Reverend Father in God, [William] by Divine Permission Lord Archbishop of York."

Archbishop's Wife.—As the Wife of an Esquire.

Archdeacon. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "The Venerable [John] ——," or "The Venerable the Archdeacon of ——." Commencement, "Venerable Sir." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Venerable Sir, Your very obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir."

Baron. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "The Right Hon. Lord ——." Commencement, "My Lord." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, my Lord, Your Lordship's obedient and humble servant. PERSONAL ADDRESS, "My Lord," or "Your Lordship."

Baroness. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "To the Right Hon. the Baroness ——," or Right Hon. the Lady ——." Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Madam, your Ladyship's obedient and humble servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "My Lady," or "Your Ladyship." [See also Baron's Widow.]

 If a Baroness in her own right marry a commoner and have issue, the children have the same rank and are addressed as if their father were a Baron.

Baronet. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "Sir [Charles] ——. Baronet." Commencement, "Sir." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Sir, Your humble and obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir." [The word "Baronet" should appear in full on cards taken to H.M.'s Levees and official signatures, but the abbreviation "Bt." is customarily used in most other cases, being preferred to that of "Bart." at one time more usually in vogue.]

Baronet's Widow.—Same as Baronet's Wife if present baronet is unmarried, but if he be married then the widow being the mother or grandmother of the baronet, is styled, if the daughter of a commoner, "The Dowager Lady ——," but when such relationship does not exist the widow must be addressed as "[Helen] Lady ——," the Christian name being inserted before "Lady." [See "Dowager."] As to re-marriage, see "Widows."

Baronet's Wife. — LETTERS. — Superscription, if the daughter (i) of a commoner "Lady ———"; (ii) of a Baron or a Viscount, "The Hon. Lady ———"; (iii) of an Earl, a Marquess, or a Duke, "The Lady [Emily], ———" Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Madam, Your Ladyship's most obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "My Lady," or "Your Ladyship."

Baron's Son's Wife. — LETTERS. — Superscription, if the daughter (i) of a Viscount, a Baron, or a commoner, "Hon. Mrs. ———," or "Hon. Mrs. [Edward] ———"; (ii) of an Earl, a Marquess, or a Duke, "Lady [Ellen]." Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion (i) if of lesser rank than Earl's daughter, "I have the honour to be, Madam, your humble and obedient servant"; (ii) if of higher rank than Viscount's daughter, "I have the honour to be, Madam, Your Ladyship's humble and obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS (i) "Madam"; (ii.) "My Lady," or "Your Ladyship."

Baron's Widow.—Same as Baroness, if present Baron is unmarried, but if he be married then the widow, being the mother or grandmother of the Peer is styled "The Right Hon. the Baroness Dowager ———." When such relationship does not exist the widow is styled, "The Right Hon. [Maria] Baroness ———." [See Dowager."] As to re-marriage, see "Widows."

Baron's Daughter.—LETTERS.—Superscription, if married (i) to an esquire, "Hon. Mrs. ———"; (ii) to a knight, or a baronet, "Hon. Lady ———"; (iii) to the son of a Baron, or Viscount, or to the younger son of an Earl, "Hon. Mrs. ———," or if her husband has a married brother, "Hon. Mrs. [William] ———"; (iv) to the younger son of a Marquess or a Duke, "Lady [Henry]———." If unmarried, "Hon. [Mary] ———"; (v) to the eldest son of of a Duke, Marquess, or Earl by his courtesy title. Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion (i) if unmarried, or married to one of lesser degree than the son of a Marquess or a Duke, "I have the honour to be, Madam, Your humble and obedient servant; (ii) if married to the son of a Marquess or a Duke, same as Duke's daughter. PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Madam," but if married to the son of a Marquess or a Duke, or to the Eldest son of an Earl, "My Lady," or "Your Ladyship."

Baron's Son.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "Hon. [John] ———." Commencement, "Sir." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Sir, Your obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir."

Baron's Son's Widow. — Same as Baron's Son's Wife so long as she remains a widow. As to re-marriage, see "Widows."

Bishop. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of ———." FORMAL DOCUMENTS, "The Right Rev. Father in God [William], by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of ———." Otherwise same as Baron.

Colonial Bishops. — Same as English Bishops.

Irish Bishops consecrated prior to 1868 same as English Bishops. Those consecrated more recently are by courtesy styled "The Right Rev. the Bishop of ———," and are addressed as "Right Rev. Sir," excepting the Bishop of Meath, who is styled "Most Rev."

Retired Bishops. — Letters commence Right Rev. Sir," and are addressed "The Right Rev. Bishop [Smith]," or "The Right Rev. [John] ——— D.D."

Scotch Bishops. — Letters commence "Right Rev. Sir," and are addressed to "The Right Rev. Bishop [Mackarness]." The territorial title cannot be used correctly.

Suffragan Bishops.—Same as Bishops. Superscription, "The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop Suffragan of ———," or more usually, "The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of ———." They have not seats in the House of Lords.

Bishop's Wife.—As wife of Esquire.

Clerk in Holy Orders.—LETTERS.—Superscription, (i) if the son of a Duke or a Marquess "The Rev. Lord [George] ———;" (ii) if the son of an Earl, a Viscount, or a Baron "The Rev. The Hon. [Albert] ———;" (it is incorrect to write Hon. and Rev.), (iii) if the son of a commoner "The Rev. [John] ———," or, if the Christian name is not known, "The Rev. ——— [Smith]." It is incorrect to write "The Right Rev. Mr. ———." Commencement, "Rev. Sir." Conclusion, I am, Rev. Sir, Your obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir."

Commander or Companion of any Order.—According to rank, adding after the word "Esq." the initials, "C.V.O.," "C.B.," "C.S.I.," "C M.G.," "C.I.E.," "D.S.O.," or "I.S.O.," as the case may be.

Consuls [English].—LETTERS.—Superscription, "To ———, Esq., H.B.M.'s ['Agent and Consul-General,' 'Consul-General,' 'Consul,' or Vice-Consul,' as the case may be] ———." In other respects as an Esquire.

Countess.—LETTERS. — Superscription, "To the Right Hon. the Countess of ———. In other respects, the same as Baroness. [See also "Earl's Widow."] If a Countess in her own right marry a gentleman of lesser degree than herself and have issue, the children have the same rank, and are addressed as if their father were an Earl.

County Court Judge. See Judge of County Courts.

Dean. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "The Very Rev. the Dean of ———" Commencement, "Very Rev. Sir." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Very Rev. Sir, Your most obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir."

Divorced Ladies.—Immediately a lady is divorced she loses any title, or precedence, she gained by marriage and should resume her maiden surname and precedence with the prefix of "Mrs." if the daughter of a commoner. A divorced peeress, however, asserts her right to use the title she acquired by marriage. Such claim is assumptive and worthless, and ought not to be recognised.

Dowager Lady is addressed according to her rank. Immediately a peer, or a baronet, marries, the widow of the previous incumbent of the title becomes "Dowager." This prefix, however, is not generally appreciated, and during the last five-and-twenty years it has been very much less used than formerly. It is well that the change is rapidly taking place, because confusion constantly occurs when there are two or more "Dowagers" in the same family, unless, according to their seniority, they be respectively termed "Dowager Dowager," or "Dewager Dowager Dowager." It is therefore recommended that each Dowager be addressed by her Christian name, as, "The Right Hon. [Mary] Countess of———," etc., etc., if a peeress; or, as Ellen, Lady ———," if a Baronet's widow. But the word "Dowager" should never be used except the lady addressed is either mother, or grandmother, of the present peer or baronet.

Duchess. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "To Her Grace, the Duchess of ———." Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion "I have the honour to be, Madam, Your Grace's most humble and most obedient servant," PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Your Grace." [See also "Duke's Widow," and for "Duchess of the Blood Royal" see "Princess."]

Duke.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "To His Grace, the Duke of ———." Commencement, "My Lord Duke." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, my Lord Duke, Your Grace's most devoted and most obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Your Grace." [For "Duke of the Blood Royal" see 'Prince."]

Duke's Daughter.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "Lady [Henrietta] ———." Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Madam, Your Ladyship's most obedient and humble servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "My Lady," or "Your Ladyship."

 If the daughter of a Duke, a Marquess, or an Earl marry a Peer she is addressed according to the rank of her husband, and if she marry the eldest son of a Duke or Marquess she is known by her husband's courtesy title as also is the daughter of an Earl marrying an Earl's eldest son, but if the daughter of a Duke or Marquess marry the eldest son of an Earl she is sometimes addressed by the courtesy title of her husband, but more usually the husband's courtesy title (never his surname) is used with the prefix of Lady, thus—Lady Helen Stavordale.

Duke's Eldest Son, assumes by courtesy the second title of his father, and is addressed as if he were a Peer.

Duke's Eldest Son's Daughter is by courtesy addressed as if her father were a Peer.

Duke's Eldest Son's Son assumes by courtesy the third title of his grandfather, and is addressed in every respect as a peer.

Duke's Eldest Son's Widow, same as Duke's Eldest Son's Wife so long as she remains a widow. As to re-marriage, see "Widows."

Duke's Eldest Son's Wife is known by his courtesy title, whatever it may be, and is addressed as if she were a peeress.

Duke's Eldest Son's Younger Son is by courtesy addressed as if his father were a Peer.

Duke's Widow, same as Duchess if present Duke is unmarried, but if he be married, then the Widow, being the mother or grandmother of the Duke, is styled, "Her Grace the Duchess Dowager of ———." When such relationship does not exist, the widow is styled, "Her Grace [Maria], Duchess of ———." [See "Dowager."] As to re-marriage, see "Widows."

Duke's Younger Son.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "Lord [Albert] ———," or, "Lord [Francis] ———." Commencement, "My Lord." Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, my Lord, Your Lordship's most obedient and humble Servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "My Lord," or "Your Lordship."

Duke's Younger Son's Widow, same as Duke's Younger Son's Wife. As to re-marriage, see "Widows."

Duke's Younger Son's Wife.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "Lady [Thomas] ———." In other respects, as Duke's Daughters.

Earl's Younger Son's Wife, same as Baron's younger Son's Wife.

Esquire. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "[Edward] ———, Esq." Commencement, "Sir." Conclusion, I am, Sir, Your most obedient Servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir."

Esquire's Wife. — Superscription, "Mrs.," or "Mrs. [John] ———." LETTERS. —Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion, "I am, Madam, Your most obedient Servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Madam."

Esquire's Widow, same as Esquire's Wife.

Governor of Colony. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "His Excellency Governor [Jones]," or His Excellency [Sir John] ——, Governor of ——." In other respects according to rank.

Governor of Colony's Wife is in some Colonies by courtesy styled "Her Excellency," but only when resident in the Colony under her husband's governorship.

Judge. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "Hon. ——," or if a Knight, "Hon. Sir ——." Commencement, "Sir," Conclusion, "I have the honour to be, Sir, Your most obedient and humble servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir," but when on the Bench, "My Lord," or, "Your Lordship." Military Officers.—See "Naval Officers."

Minister Resident.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "To ——, Esq., H.B.M.'s Minister Resident ——." In other respects as an Esquire.

Moderator of the Church of Scotland.—By Order in Council the Moderator has precedence in Scotland and at Court functions immediately after Bishops of the Church of England, and is addressed as "Rt. Rev."

Naval and Military Officers.—Professional rank should always be prefixed to any other rank, e.g., Adm. the Right Hon. the Earl of ——, "Gen. the Right Hon. Lord ——," "Lieut.-Col. Sir ——," "Capt. ——, R.N.," but Lieutenants in the Army and Sub-Lieutenants in the Navy are addressed by their social and not their professional rank, e.g., "Hon. Benjamin ——, 50th Regt," "George ——, Esq., 10th Hussars," "Edward ——, Esq., R.N., H.M.'s Ship ——," or "William ——, Esq., R.N."

Premier, The.—Is addressed according to rank.

Prince.—LETTERS.—Superscription, (i) if a Duke, "His Royal Highness the Duke of ——"; (ii) if not a Duke, "His Royal Highness Prince [Leopold]." Commencement, "Sir." Conclusion, "I remain, with the greatest respect, Sir, Your Royal Highness's most dutiful and most obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Your Royal Highness."

Princess. — LETTERS. — Superscription, (i) if a Duchess, "Her Royal Highness the Duchess of ——"; (ii) if not a Duchess, "Her Royal Highness the Princess [Beatrice]." Commencement, "Madam." Conclusion, "I remain, with the greatest respect, Madam, Your Royal Highness's most dutiful and most obedient servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Your Royal Highness."

Privy Councillor.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "To the Right Hon. ——." Commencement, &c., according to the rank of the gentleman.

Queen. — LETTERS. — Superscriptions, "The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty" or "Her Gracious Majesty Queen [Alexandra] ——." Commencement, "Madam," or "May it please your Majesty." Conclusion, "I remain, with the profoundest veneration, Your Majesty's most faithful subject and devoted servant." PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Your Majesty."

 Sometimes the undermentioned style is adopted: "Lord —— presents his duty to your Majesty."

Secretary of State.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the —— Department," or "To the [Most Hon. the Marquess of Salisbury] ——, H. M.'s Principal Secretary of State for the [Foreign] —— Department." In other respects according to rank.

Serjeants-at-Law.—LETTERS.—Superscription, "Serjeant," or "Mr. Serjeant ——." In other respects as an Esq. [It is incorrect to address a letter to, "—— Esq., S.L.," the dignity of Serjeants being one of those mentioned in Statute 1, Edward VI., c. 7, s. 3.

Vice-Chancellor. — LETTERS. — Superscription, same as Judge. PERSONAL ADDRESS, "Sir," but when on the Bench "My Lord," or "Your Lordship."

Viscount. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "The Right Hon. the Lord Viscount ——." In other respects as Baron.

Viscountess. — LETTERS. — Superscription, "The Right Hon. the Viscountess ——." In other respects as Baroness and Baron's widow. [See also Viscount's "Widow."]

Viscount's Children and the Wives and Widows thereof, same as Baron's.

Viscount's Widow, same as Viscountess if present Viscount is unmarried, but if he be married, then the widow, being the mother or grandmother of the Peer is styled "The Rt. Hon. the Viscountess Dowager ——"; but if this relationship does not exist the widow is addressed as "The Rt. Hon. [Anne], Viscountess ——." [See "Dowager."] As to re-marriage, see "Widows."

Widows.—See paragraph  at commencement of this section.

Wives of Officials and others not specially referred to. Each of these is addressed as an "Esquire's wife."

ROYAL WARRANT HOLDERS.

DEBRETT'S

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF

ROYAL WARRANT HOLDERS.

[This list indicates the names of firms who held Warrants of appointment to Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, to H.M. King Edward only when Prince of Wales, and to H.M. Queen Alexandra only when Princess of Wales, as well as those appointed for present Reign. It is neither official nor necessarily exhaustive, and the body of Warrant Holders is subject to frequent alterations, Warrants being liable to become void by death, retirement, or bankruptcy of the individuals, partners, or directors in whose names the warrants are granted, and also by change of designation of firms. Any alterations for this list should be communicated to the EDITOR as they occur.]

N.B.—The use of Royal Arms and Insignia for trading purposes is STRICTLY confined to firms HOLDING Royal Warrants of appointments. Usually at the demise of the Crown, Warrants become void, but owing to the exceptional length of the last reign, many firms who held Warrants of Appointment to Queen Victoria have been permitted to retain their Warrants to Her late Majesty, and to continue to use the Royal Arms; but unless such Warrants bear endorsement to that effect, they are void, and the right to the use of the Royal Arms in this connection has lapsed.

† ,, ,, ,, ,, hold ,, ,, H.M. King Edward VII.
§ ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, H.M. Queen Alexandra.
¶ (after name): ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, (renewed for present reign) to Her late Majesty Queen Victoria.
‖ (before name): ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, to Prince of Wales.
‡ ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, Princess of Wales.
a ,, ,, ,, ,, held ,, ,, King Edward VII. only when Prince of Wales.
b ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, ,, Queen Alexandra only when Princess of Wales.

DENT'S CHRONOMETERS,

WATCHES and CLOCKS, have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen from Reports of various scientific persons :—

THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (Sir G. B. AIRY), in his Report to the Admiralty (13th of August, 1870) on forty Chronometers entered for annual competition says of M. F. DENT'S Chronometer :—

"THIS IS THE FINEST CHRONOMETER WE HAVE EVER HAD ON TRIAL."

N.B.—The LATE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (J. POND, Esq.), reporting, in 1829, on the celebrated public trial, by order of the Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted thirteen years, during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested, says :—

"Your Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium. Actual variation in the year, 54 hundredths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried."

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburg, reporting upon eighty-one Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition in 1843, says :—

"The DENT CHRONOMETERS have held FIRST RANK in a brilliant manner. They contributed, beyond dispute, the MOST EFFECTUALLY to the exactitude of the results.

"M. STRUVE."

 By Command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the Highest Order of Merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

The Report on Chronometers, Watches, &c., by the Judges at Philadelphia Exhibition, 1876, can be had on application.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, PHILADELPHIA (1876).

The Judges in their Report on the Exhibits of M. F. DENT, said of his Chronometers and Watches :—

"The Workmanship was of the First Order"; and of his Clocks, "They were representative of the highest achievements of his art."

MEDAL & DIPLOMA OF THE HIGHEST ORDER WERE AWARDED.

Sir H. M. Stanley's Testimony to the excellence of Chronometers supplied to him by M. F. DENT, and used in finding his longitude in his last Expedition. Mr. Stanley says in a letter, 5th July, 1890 :—

"The Chronometers supplied by you, and which were taken across Africa in my late Expedition, proved of very great service to me, and were in every way thoroughly satisfactory and reliable."

SOLE ADDRESS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

ORIGINAL AND

ONLY GENUINE.

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. C. BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED a REMEDY, to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. The composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.

This Caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

The Illustrated London News of Sept. 28, 1895, says :—

"If I were asked which single medicine I should prefer to take abroad with me, as likely to be most generally useful, to the exclusion of all others, I should say CHLORODYNE. I never travel without it, and its general applicability to the relief of a large number of simple ailments forms its best recommendation."

DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA.

The GENERAL BOARD of HEALTH (LONDON) REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM. One dose generally sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states: "TWO DOSES COMPLETELY CURED ME OF DIARRHŒA."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the TRUE PALLIATIVE in NEURALGIA, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Rheumatism.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a LIQUID MEDICINE, which ASSUAGES PAIN of EVERY KIND, affords a calm, refreshing sleep WITHOUT HEADACHE, and INVIGORATES the NERVOUS system when exhausted.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

The IMMENSE SALE of this REMEDY has given rise to many UNSCRUPULOUS IMITATIONS Be careful to observe the Trade Mark. Of all Chemists, 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d.

Sole Manufacturer: J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, GREAT RUSSELL STREET, W.C.

ARCHBISHOP MAGEE.

Extract from one of his published letters to his wife :—

"I had a return of a bad cold yesterday morning—preached with two pocket-handkerchiefs to a great congregation at St. Mary's, ate a 'cold collation' at three o'clock, saw clergy on business until five o'clock, went to a 'parochial tea' at six o'clock; sat out no end of tea, glees, and speeches until half-past nine; finished off with a speech until ten o'clock, came here very bad with cold, took CHLORODYNE, and went to bed very miserable; woke next morning quite well."

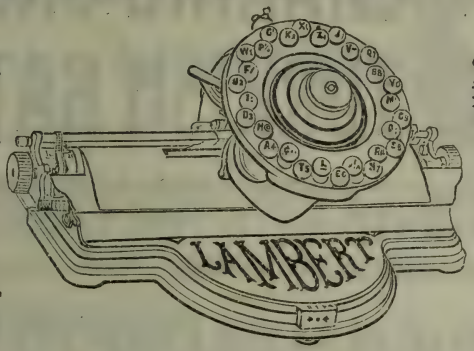
The "Lambert" Typewriter



IS THE MACHINE FOR THE HOME.

No trouble to Learn.

No trouble to use.

The "LAMBERT"

Saves Time.
Saves Labour.
Saves Money.

The "LAMBERT" is being used by—

Soldiers,
Country Gentlemen,
Professional Men,

By almost EVERYONE.

Why the "LAMBERT" is so Popular.

(1) The "LAMBERT" does the same work that any ordinary typewriting machine does—and does it equally well.

(2) The "LAMBERT" costs £7 10s., or one-third of the price of any ordinary typewriting machine. It is a high grade machine.

(3) The "LAMBERT" is the easiest typing machine to learn. Anyone can master it in a day. You could in an hour.

(4) The "LAMBERT" weighs 5 lb. Go and buy one, you can carry it away with you.

MILBURN'S

PATENT NOISELESS

Revolving CHIMNEY COWL.

NORTHUMBERLAND WORKS, MARLBOROUGH.

TRADE MARK.

THIS is the only Cowl as yet in the market which in ALL cases prevents wind blowing down Chimneys. It is almost impossible to say too much in its praise. Placed in the most trying situations, it has never been known to fail. Great care is used in the construction of its internal fittings, which, being made of Copper and Brass, will last a long time. It is not at all liable to get out of order, and is made so strong that it will stand the force of a hurricane; in fact, increased action of a storm only increases its efficiency. It is perfectly noiseless, it is easily swept—the shaft being free from obstruction to the sweep machine—the head cleansing itself. A heavy fall of snow does not impede its action, neither is it affected by frost. In case of the chimney taking fire it would remain uninjured, being made fireproof, and the oil box requires replenishing with oil only once in six years.

Made in Galvanised Iron, with Copper Fireproof Oil Box,

£3 10s.

IS THE ELECTRIC LIGHT REALLY DEARER THAN GAS?

ANSWER See below.

COPY OF LETTER FROM PITCHFORD HALL:

"I do not consider that the working of Electric Light is dearer than the cost of oil, candles, and gas would be Your men did no damage to the building when introducing it. The light is most reliable in every way.

"I do not find it necessary to have an expensive engineer to take charge of the plant—my carpenter learned to work it easily, and has done so most satisfactorily for two years."

ESTABLISHED 1837.

IN THIS SOCIETY ARE COMBINED THE ADVANTAGES OF Mutual Assurance with Moderate Premiums.

THE PREMIUMS are so moderate that an Assurance of £1,200 or £1,250 may generally be secured from the first for the yearly payment which usually would be charged (with profits) for £1000 only—the difference being equivalent to an immediate and certain Bonus of 20 to 25 per cent.

THE WHOLE SURPLUS goes to the Policyholders on a system at once safe and equitable—no share being given to those by whose early death there is a Loss.

EXAMPLES OF PREMIUM FOR £100 AT DEATH, WITH PROFITS.

AGE.	25	30*	35	40	45	50
DURING LIFE,	£1 17 5	£2 2 4	£2 8 6	£2 16 6	£3 8 2	£4 3 2
25 PAYMENTS	2 9 8	2 13 11	2 19 3	3 5 11	3 15 11	4 8 8
15 PAYMENTS,	3 7 5	3 13 2	3 19 11	4 7 11	4 18 6	5 11 2

* A person of 30 may secure £1000 at death by a yearly payment, during life, of £21 3s. 4d., which would in most offices secure (with profits) £800 only. Or he may secure £1000 by 25 payments of £26 19s. 2d., being thus free of payment before age 55.

THE SURPLUS at the 1901 Investigation was £1,581,000.

Over 60 per cent. of the Members who died during the Septennium were entitled to Bonuses which, notwithstanding that the Premiums do not as a rule exceed the non-profit rates of other Offices, were, on an average, equal to an addition of over 50 per cent. to the Original Assurances.

OBJECTS AND CONSTITUTION OF THE LEAGUE.

1. The Association to be called "The British Empire League."
2. It shall be the primary object of the League to secure the permanent unity of the Empire.
3. The following to be among the other principal objects of the League:
   (a) To promote trade between the United Kingdom, the Colonies, and India, and to advocate the holding of periodical meetings of representatives from all parts of the Empire for the discussion of matters of general and commercial interest, and the consideration of the best means of expanding the national trade.
   (b) To consider how far it may be possible to modify any laws or treaties which impede freedom of action in the making of reciprocal trade arrangements between the United Kingdom and the Colonies, or between any two or more British Colonies or Possessions.
   (c) To promote closer intercourse between the different portions of the Empire by the establishment of cheaper and, where required, more direct steam, postal and telegraphic communication, preference being given to routes not traversing Foreign Territory.
   (d) To develop the principles on which all parts of the Empire may best share in its general defence; endeavouring to bring into harmony public opinion at Home and in the Colonies on this subject, and to devise a more perfect co-operation of the Military and Naval Forces of the Empire with a special view to the due protection of the trade routes.
   (e) To assimilate, as far as local circumstances permit, the laws relating to copyright, patents, legitimacy and bankruptcy throughout the Empire.
4. The League shall use every constitutional means to bring about the objects for which it is established, and shall invite the support of men of all shades of political opinion throughout the Empire.
5. The League shall advocate the establishment of periodical Conferences to deal with such questions as may appear ripe for consideration, on the lines of the London Conference of 1877 and the Ottawa Conference of 1894.

THE SMART SET

A MAGAZINE OF CLEVERNESS

No other periodical has so many notable contributors, many of whom are of high social station; no other periodical depicts the best society of the world exactly as it is; no other periodical has such a diversity of contents—such a variety of fascinating stories and poems. This magazine is alone in its field, wholly original, wholly different from all other publications, past and present. It is read throughout the British Empire and wherever the English language is spoken throughout the World. Its rapid increase in popularity and circulation has been a revelation of the possibilities of publishing—of publishing, that is, what the reading public likes to read—the lightest and brightest in modern literature.

To the reader, then, unfamiliar with "The Smart Set," it offers a new field of entertainment and delight.

THE

SYDNEY MORNING HERALD.

PRICE ONE PENNY.

LARGEST CIRCULATION. BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

THE LEADING DAILY OF THE AUSTRALIAN COMMONWEALTH.

SINCE its first establishment in 1831 the "SYDNEY MORNING HERALD" has always maintained its position as the most prominent of high-class Australian newspapers. Its literary organisation is excellent, its printing machinery embraces the newest improvements, and its mechanical arrangements are of the most modern type. It is regarded as being the most influential journal in Australasia. His Honour Chief Justice Darley, when delivering an important judgment, recognised its position and referred to it as "the leading paper of the Colony." It has special correspondents in all parts of the world, it circulates everywhere, and as an advertising medium it is unequalled. Of its Federal number on June 6, 1899, 273,000 sixteen-page papers were published.

THE SYDNEY MAIL.

AUSTRALIA'S BEST ILLUSTRATED.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL. PRICE SIXPENCE.

ADAPTED equally to the wants of City, Town, and Country residents in Great Britain and Australasia. It supplies the latest trustworthy intelligence to all classes of the community, having special facilities for obtaining the latest and most authentic news from all parts of the world. Special attention is devoted to Sporting, Agricultural, Pastoral, and Mining subjects, and general matters of social, domestic, and fashionable interest. The illustrations are of the best kind, and the Fiction, Essays, and other literary contributions are from the pens of writers of acknowledged ability in Great Britain and the Colonies.

On reference to the Journal itself, it will be seen that Agencies are established throughout all the States, New Zealand and New Caledonia, and it has now obtained a large and increasing circulation in the United Kingdom.

3d. The Pilot. 3d.

A Weekly Review of Politics, Literature & Learning.

Edited by D. C. LATHBURY.

PRICE THREEPENCE.

The 'Pilot' was founded in 1900 as a Weekly Review, aiming at a thorough and independent treatment of matters both of current and permanent interest in politics, literature, learning, and religion. The tendency alike of its articles and of its reviews is towards criticism of a constructive rather than a purely negative character. But, while it maintains a policy of its own in regard to these subjects, it welcomes views expressed in signed articles by writers who have a claim to be heard.

PRESS OPINIONS.

"One of the best of the weekly reviews."—Church Times.

"The most learned and interesting of all the Anglican newspapers."—Methodist Times.

"I have no hesitation in saying that THE PILOT is the best of the sixpenny weeklies, and an honour to English journalism."—"A Man of Kent," in the British Weekly.

"The distinction of style and thought which has already given that periodical a high place."—Athenæum.

"It has deserved well of every lover of cultivated opinion and distinguished writing."—Globe.

"One of the best of the weeklies."—Westminster Gazette.

"Its literary articles are better than in any other English weekly."—Freeman's Journal.

"One of the most original and thoughtful of our existing weeklies."—Liverpool Mercury.

"One of the best of the literary organs."—The Sphere.

Country Life.

"THE JOURNAL FOR ALL INTERESTED IN COUNTRY PURSUITS." . . . . . .

WEEKLY. Price 6d. By Post 6½d.

THE aim of COUNTRY LIFE is to illustrate all country pursuits. Dwellers in the country find their every-day objects of interest illustrated in a way that has never been yet attempted; to dwellers in London we endeavour to give a breath of fresh country air. The every-day life of the Country: Country Sport—Hunting, Shooting, Fishing, Golf, Cricket, the Turf, the Stud, the Kennel, Yachting; Interesting Letters on Bird Life and Natural History generally and on Farming are given, while particular attention is paid to matters of Garden interest. The illustrated articles on "The Country Homes of England" will be found worthy of special note.

Among the weekly illustrations are

PORTRAITS OF THE LEADERS OF COUNTY SOCIETY, and Portraits of Ladies and their Children; and for lady readers the very latest Paris Fashions in Dress and Millinery are given, as well as a most carefully edited List of the most readable books of the day—only books of merit being criticised—so that readers of COUNTRY LIFE have an absolutely reliable list of the very best of current literature that they can order from their libraries.

A special feature is made of articles dealing with notable Gardens and Gardening generally.

THE EMPIRE

& SOUTH AFRICAN EMPIRE.

Financial, Political, Mining, and Industrial.

EDITED BY ROLAND BELFORT.

THE GREATEST AUTHORITY ON SOUTH AFRICAN GOLD MINING.

THE EMPIRE,

Established in 1870, on sale everywhere, the best informed, the most influential, and the most interesting journal of its class. It has a wider circulation than any other journal dealing with Imperial affairs in general, and South African affairs in particular.

THE EMPIRE,

The Recognised Organ of Greater Britain and the Pioneer of Imperial Journalism, maintains in politics its traditional attitude. Subservient to no political clique, it observes absolute independence towards all parties, applauding and encouraging every effort destined to promote the best interests of Imperial unity and progress.

THE EMPIRE

Makes a speciality of financial affairs. Prompt and exclusive information is furnished concerning South African, Westralian, British Columbian, and other mining enterprises. Respecting the leading British Industrial Companies THE EMPIRE always furnishes the latest and most reliable information.

THE EMPIRE,

Possessing "inside" sources of information, is usually the first to announce any important coming event in the Mining and other markets. From its columns investors and speculators can always ascertain "What to Buy; When to Sell; What to Avoid." The journal being absolutely independent, its advisory information is invariably trustworthy and disinterested.

THE EMPIRE

"Things in General and People in Particular" columns are read and appreciated for their bright, informative, and concise comments on prominent people and important current events.

THE EMPIRE

Constitutes an attractive medium for advertisements of a high-class character, thanks to its rapidly expanding circulation among the wealthy classes, whose clientèle is invariably appreciated by the leading firms in every department of commercial enterprise.

"THE EMPIRE," Published on WEDNESDAY, can be Obtained at all the Principal Bookstalls and Newsagents.

THE FINANCIAL STANDARD

THE FINANCIAL STANDARD

USHERED into the arena of Finance in the year 1890, when a highly academical tone was assumed by the Press, not unmingled with vituperation and personalities, THE FINANCIAL STANDARD formulated a policy of calm discussion, in a totally impartial spirit, and it has strenuously maintained that attitude from its inception. Acting independently of the claims of vested interests, and carefully avoiding any comment that was not dictated by a sense of duty and fairness to investors generally, the Journal has enjoyed an increasing Patronage at the hands of Bankers, Insurance Companies, Brokers, Solicitors, and others, and the Publishers have employed every means to secure a thorough distribution of successive issues in all those channels where the attention of the moneyed classes is sought to be attracted. Careful attention to this matter has ensured such special means for publicity at home as well as abroad, that old-standing advertisers voluntarily have testified to the efficiency of the Journal in securing the most desirable correspondence.

The advertising tariff is based on a very moderate scale, and particulars will be promptly furnished on application at the Chief Office (where all communications should be addressed) :—

"The Road" is the ONLY Riding, Driving, and Coaching Journal published in the United Kingdom. Is recognised as the organ of the wealthy classes, and as the mouthpiece of the horse and carriage world.

"The Road" is published on the first of every month, and immediately upon issue is mailed to its many subscribers and readers all over the world.

"The Road" is eagerly and exhaustively read by all hunting and coaching men, riders, drivers, polo players, travellers, trotting enthusiasts, etc., and it is essentially THE country gentleman's newspaper, being found in every country house, club reading room, and high-class hotel throughout the two hemispheres.

"The Road" circulates broadcast throughout the Continent, India, the Colonies, and all parts of the United States of America. Officers upon foreign service read and consult it.

"The Road" is published at the price of 6d. (by post 9d.), and will be sent post free for one year for 9s., paid in advance. All annual subscribers receive also, without extra charge, copies of "The Special Coaching Number" (issued June 1st) and the magnificent "Christmas Number" (issued December 1st), as well as the official "Coaching Programme" (a broad sheet measuring, on rollers, 30in. by 20in.) issued May 1st. SELL'S

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

"Our Country's Welfare | MARKETS OF THE WORLD—NEW AND OLD: | is our First Concern."

THE NEED OF THE HOUR.

It is beyond question that a demand exists for information respecting foreign competition in the Home and Foreign Markets. It is to give this information in practical form, and to supply useful and practical suggestions to British traders, that SELL'S COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE is founded.

Every week careful summaries of the Foreign Office and Consular Reports, Colonial Statements, Foreign Consular Reports, &c., are given, while special representatives throughout the world contribute everything that can be gleaned from private sources. By direct communications with America, the Continent, and the Colonies, early intimations are obtained of trade movements and new departures, such as in the ordinary course are not published for months. A competent staff of editors and writers devote their energies to analysing, grouping, and explaining the information and movements recorded; and COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE is issued in the confident expectation that it will aid British manufacturers and merchants to demonstrate to the world that Anglo-Saxon enterprise and energy are by no means things of the past.

Sold by all Newsagents, and to be obtained at Railway Bookstalls throughout the Country.

North Devon Journal.

ESTABLISHED 1824.

Published at Barnstaple every Thursday morning. Price One Penny.

Best and most Popular Advertising Medium in North Devon.
Advertisements must be received on Wednesday evening.

The circulation of the JOURNAL is guaranteed to be the largest of any Newspaper published in North Devon.

Now more fully than ever the JOURNAL maintains the position it has always held as the principal newspaper in North Devon, including Barnstaple, Bideford, Southmolton, Northmolton, Ilfracombe, Torrington, Westward Ho, Appledore, Lynton, Braunton, Combmartin, Parracombe, Landkey, Swymbridge, &c., where it has secured for the past SEVENTY-EIGHT YEARS an unequalled circulation among the nobility, gentry, clergy, agricultural and commercial classes, and the public generally. No other paper can offer the same advantages to Advertisers who wish their announcements to come under the notice of the various classes of residents in North Devon.

The JOURNAL is essentially a high-class family newspaper, and is recognised as the leading and most influential newspaper in North Devon.

The JOURNAL is much sought after, the copies being passed from hand to hand, and it thus reaches a very large circle of readers.

The Car

Illustrated.

A JOURNAL OF TRAVEL

BY LAND, SEA, AND AIR.

Edited by the Hon. John Scott Montagu, M.P.

Published every Wednesday, Price Sixpence.

The first number of THE CAR appeared in May, 1902, and the unanimous opinion of both press and public is that it approaches more closely to perfection in paper, printing, illustrations, and bright reading matter than any other weekly illustrated Journal.

"TOBY, M.P.", in Punch, says:—
"THE CAR has made excellent start. Beautifully printed, marvellously illustrated, stocked with timely articles. If its start can be lived up to, the race will be won."

The Westminster Gazette says:—
"Congratulations to THE CAR, which has made an excellent start. THE CAR, in a word, has clearly come to stay, or rather, to suit the metaphor to the subject—to go."

The Pall Mall Gazette says:—
"May these Gods in THE CAR graciously deign to accept our humble congratulations upon their flying start, and our hopes that their run will be long and prosperous."

"T.P." in M.A.P. says:—
"I don't know that I ever saw a better number than that of THE CAR. It is profusely and beautifully illustrated, and there is an excellent combination of articles that are scientific, and articles that are social and amusing. In short, THE CAR is the best thing of its kind yet produced."

The Daily Mail of June 5th says:—
"In all that is excellent in illustration, literary matter and printing, the second number of THE CAR, that sumptuous Motor Car periodical, is, if possible, even better than its first. The illustrations and get-up fully equal, and frequently actually excel, the best of the Sixpenny Weekly Illustrated Papers."

"Household Words, the popular magazine which Dickens founded . . . has always preserved the wholesome readable character which it had from the first."—Literature.

"In the present issue it is pleasant to see how well Household Words still holds its own in the flowing tide of magazines."—Manchester Courier.

"Household Words is one of the magazines that has the courage to ignore the craze for illustrations, and its pages continue to appear unadorned. . . . but if the journal is not made bright with pictures, it is kept brilliant with its literary contributions, which are both numerous and eminently suited to the popular taste, the taste which still retains an element of seriousness and self-respect."—Blackburn Standard.

The Best Guide to the Best New Books.

THE LITERARY WORLD.

ESTABLISHED 1867.

Every Thursday. One Penny. Monthly, 6d.

Although published at a penny, this journal is a literary organ of the highest class. The newest books in fiction, biography, theology, travel, poetry, art, and science—in fact, in every department of literature—are reviewed in its columns by a staff of experienced writers, including several well-known men of letters.

Critical reviews of all important works are given, sometimes in the form of signed articles.

A feature of THE LITERARY WORLD from its commencement has been the brief illustrative extracts, which of themselves supply interesting reading matter, and, in combination with the comment, enable readers to form a very fair idea of the best books to purchase.

The publications annually dealt with number some thousands.

The Best Magazine for the Children.

THE ROSEBUD.

ESTABLISHED 1881.

On the 25th of each Month, 3d. Yearly, 4s.

As a high-class magazine for the children, THE ROSEBUD has no rival. Its illustrations are the best, most amusing, and, at the same time, instructive that can be produced. Almost every page has a picture on it. Its artists are in the front rank of those who cater for the amusement of the smaller occupants of our homes.

The stories in prose and verse are specially written by those who have proved their ability to interest the little ones. There are also puzzles, songs with music, and other features, including pictures of nearly all the birds in the air, beasts of the field, and the fish of the sea in various comical attitudes.

The Twelve Monthly Parts of THE ROSEBUD are issued in the autumn of each year in a handsome cloth binding, price 4s. As a Reward Book, Birthday, or Christmas present for a child, THE ROSEBUD ANNUAL still stands unrivalled.

THE KING

An Illustrated Weekly Journal devoted to the Life, Interests, and Character of London, and of the County Towns of the United Kingdom.

APPROPRIATELY in the year of the Coronation "The KING" takes upon itself a new and improved form, and many additional features. Whatever was good in its earlier state is retained, but many improvements have been introduced; and in literary excellence, richness of pictorial interest, and in the unrivalled character in which it is produced, it now claims to be placed among the finest illustrated publications of the day.

It is a journal for the home, containing everything that can interest and divert. The thinking reader finds himself brought into touch with the intellectual and artistic life of the day. The latest books, the works of the studio, the exhibitions at the galleries, the triumphs of the stage, and the movements of the musical world have their place in the pages of "The KING." Really good fiction; interesting articles on the occupations and amusements of the day; in fashion, and in dress; in the artistic arrangement and adornment of the home, or in the needs of the kitchen—all will be found in "The KING." A page will be devoted to cookery, which will be treated in a new method, and will be found of immense practical use in the household—"The KING'S Menu" promises to be famous.

A special feature of the Paper will be its ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE GREAT LONDON HOUSES. Week by week, interiors of the notable houses of London will be shown, all specially photographed for "The KING" by the artist whose work is so well known in the "GARDENS OLD AND NEW" series of Country Life.

"'The KING' makes a new departure this week with a much enlarged number, produced in a style to make it a worthy companion to the excellent Country Life. Court and urban life generally, famous London houses—Londonderry House is chosen for this occasion—the drama, and books will be dealt with week by week, and the pages devoted to humour in words and pictures will still be found."—Morning Post.

"This week's 'KING' is the first number of a new series. The paper has been enlarged and considerably improved. There is much more reading-matter than formerly, the arrangement is better, and the illustrations are numerous, excellent, and topical. We understand that it is the intention of the editor to specialise on the Court's movements and on urban life generally. Some of the features are especially distinctive—Tunbridge Wells appearing this week: and the descriptions illustrated with photographs specially taken of Famous London houses, the one in the present number being Londonderry House. Among the general features are a City article, notices of plays and players, the King's Jester, fashions of the day, and so on. Altogether 'The KING' takes rank as among the best of the illustrated papers."—Westminster Gazette.

"The new series of 'The KING' is of the town towny, concerning itself about Royalties and great folks and clubs and town houses, town amusements, town topics, and town everything."

EXTENSIVE CIRCULATIONS THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICTS.

Maidstone & Kentish Journal

And South-Eastern Advertiser.

Published THURSDAYS during the Market and SATURDAYS.

The Leading County Paper. Established 1786.

THE JOURNAL, a high-class Newspaper, has been extending its circulation and growing in influence in the important and wealthy County of Kent and neighbouring Counties for more than a hundred years. It is the most influential Newspaper in the Counties of Kent, Surrey, and Sussex, and the South-Eastern District, in which it is the recognised Conservative organ, and is extensively circulated among the Nobility, Clergy, and the large Agriculturists, and Commercial Classes. It offers to Solicitors, Auctioneers, Estate and Land Agents, Public Companies, every class of Traders, Servants, and others, a valuable opportunity of laying their wants and proposals before the Public.

It devotes special attention to Agricultural matters and the Hop industry, of which Maidstone is the principal market and centre.

The Kent County Standard.

Established 1873. Published SATURDAYS.

THE STANDARD is a popular and well-known Family and General Newspaper. Not being the organ of any party it receives support from all classes, and consequently its value as an advertising medium for the district is very great. Particular attention is given to the publication of high class Stories and light reading, which makes it a general favourite as a Family Newspaper.

The Bromley Journal.

Established 1869. Published FRIDAYS.

THE JOURNAL is the Best Local and General Newspaper in the Western Division of Kent, and has an extensive circulation among all classes in Bromley, Beckenham, Chislehurst, St. Mary Cray, and throughout West Kent. It has the active and influential support of the Constitutional party throughout this large and important District.

The Justice of the Peace.

Established A.D. 1837.

Saturday, 6d. Annual Subscription, £1 8s. 6d., post free

This well-known Paper, the first number of which appeared on January 28th, 1837, in the closing months of the reign of William IV, is the oldest weekly legal journal in existence.

It is the only paper designed for the assistance of Justices of the Peace in their official capacity, supplying them with much valuable information, including carefully written articles on new Acts of Parliament affecting them, detailed Reports of important cases decided in the Courts, and Answers to Questions submitted by Subscribers for the consideration of the Editors.

Edited by well-known Barristers, with special knowledge of this branch of Law, THE JUSTICE OF THE PEACE has long been a recognised authority in all matters relating to the Local Administration of Justice.

Chief Constables, Clerks of the Peace, Clerks to County Councils and the various District Authorities, and all County Officials and others connected with Local Government, will also find this paper of great value. The weekly legal articles on questions of Local Administration are much appreciated, and the Question and Answer Columns freely used, by all classes of Officials. The Reports, which are so arranged that they can be bound separately at the end of the year, are a special feature of the Paper, and include every reportable case bearing on Public Health, Poor Law, Poor Rate, Licensing, Education, and every branch of Local Government Law.

"DEBRETT'S COMING EVENTS is a new remembrancer, issued monthly and contains lists of all the notable social functions fixed for the period of its issue. It should be most useful to the denizens of the world of fashion. Paper and printing are excellent."

Vanity Fair.

"The enterprising firm of Dean & Son, Limited, of 160A, Fleet Street, have just added another publication to their already bulky parcel. DEBRETT'S COMING EVENTS is its title, which is to be issued every month for sixpence net."

St. James's Gazette.

"Messrs. Dean & Son, the publishers of 'Debrett's Peerage,' have hit upon a new idea. They have issued a little booklet with a vivid red cover called COMING EVENTS IN JUNE, which will certainly fulfil the publishers' belief of being useful to the man and woman about town who wish to be kept posted up as to what is going on in the world of fashion. All social fixtures that can possibly be of interest are noted."

Bazaar.

"To those who require some note of forthcoming events, we recommend DEBRETT'S COMING EVENTS, a new monthly calendar of social fixtures, race meetings, concerts, exhibitions, et hoc genus omne, which will be found invaluable to those desirous of knowing what is going on in the world of fashion."

Referee.

"One of the most useful booklets of reference lately issued is DEBRETT'S COMING EVENTS, a monthly work published by Dean & Son. The first number contains so full a list of every kind of fixture that reading it one may know who is going to dine, sing, play cricket, act, race, and so on every day in the week. Moreover the list of churches, theatres, music halls, and other entertainments is very extensive indeed. And all for the small price of sixpence net."

Lady's Pictorial.

"Messrs. Dean & Son, Ltd., are to be congratulated upon a good idea in publishing DEBRETT'S COMING EVENTS, a calendar of social doings for the current month, whatever it may be. If conducted, as no doubt it will be, with accuracy and a telescopic eye, it should be a very useful booklet for all who are concerned with society, its duties and its pleasures."

HASSALL'S

CHRISTMAS BOOK,

ENTITLED:

An A. B. C. of Everyday People.

With Verses by
G. E. FARROW.

The clever and popular artist, JOHN HASSALL, has surpassed himself in this work, and eclipsed previous productions.

Exceedingly smart, also, are the verses by G. E. FARROW.

The book is published at Three Shillings and Sixpence.

National Incorporated Waifs' Association

(DR. BARNARDO'S HOMES).

Patron of Cripples' Aid Branch: H.M. QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

The doors of these Homes are never shut, night or day. They are OPEN to the HOMELESS, FREELY, at all hours, all the year round. Branches of this Association are established or are being formed all over the Kingdom. There is no waiting list. There is no intervention of patrons needful to secure admission. There is no system of voting or of election. There is no bar on the grounds of age, sex, creed, birthplace, nationality, or physical health or disabilities. 2 892 Waifs were freely admitted in 1901, and during that year 7,887 were educated and maintained. Over SIX THOUSAND are now under the care of the Association, constituting the largest family in the whole world. NINE souls are added to this great family every 24 hours.

1,208 of the inmates are Sick, Ailing, Helpless, Afflicted or Incurable. These include the Blind, the Deaf and Dumb, the Deformed, the Maimed, and Infants under three years of age.

Only one point is insisted upon—the actual destitution of the applicant. If destitute, admission is immediate, unqualified, unhampered.

46,500 ORPHAN WAIFS have already been RESCUED by the Homes. Of these 13,657 trained Boys and Girls have been successfully placed out in Canada and the Colonies; 1,053 Young Emigrants have been sent abroad this year; 27,000 in all have been sent to Sea, or PLACED in SITUATIONS in Great Britain, etc.

Some conception of the extent of this Christian and National Work may be formed from the fact that during the last Two Years no fewer than 5,771 Boys and Girls have been freely admitted. If all the admissions in the same time by all other existing Societies were totalled, the aggregate would be less than one-half the number admitted to these Institutions. No other Society admits freely so many cases of cruelly treated children, brought by the N.S.P.C.C.

This National Association is the unofficial Waifs' Society of all the Churches, and it therefore makes indefeasible claims for countenance and support upon every citizen. It is conducted on the broadest Christian basis consistent with loyalty to the truth of the Gospel. There is a Church of England section and a Nonconformist section. every child being brought up in the religion of its parents. In particular, it is entitled to the aid of every Clergyman and Minister of religion in England, for there are few districts throughout the country from which it has not admitted a child, or children, to its unconditional benefits. Of the 2,892 Waifs freshly admitted during 1901, no fewer than 1,973 were received freely on the application of the Clergy and Nonconformist Ministers of various denominations. The whole work is unquestionably "beneficent and national" alike (as it has been described by His Majesty King Edward the Seventh). It is doing, as for 36 years it has done throughout all England, the task both of the Church and of the State. It is clearing the streets and lanes of waifs and wastrels. No other agency can claim to do this, for no other society searches for children all over the Kingdom, or has ever dealt with so large a number in any one year or series of years. The annual admissions for example of free cases by the next largest Society average under 400, as compared with an annual average of nearly 3,000 entirely free admissions by this Association. The NATIONAL WAIFS' ASSOCIATION has helped to empty the prisons, the workhouses, and the reformatories. It has relieved local rates and national taxes. It has freely given ungrudging aid whenever the cry of a destitute child has reached it.

NO REALLY DESTITUTE CHILD HAS EVER BEEN REFUSED ADMISSION.

Funds are urgently needed. £16 will maintain a child for twelve months; £10 will cover the entire cost of emigrating a Boy or Girl. £200 is required every day for FOOD alone.
Our Bank Account is now HEAVILY OVERDRAWN.

Even the smallest Gifts will be gratefully accepted.
